	05/10/2004 Shri Malay Kumar Bhaduri, counsel for the applicant. Heard. The applicant/claimant was awarded compensation by the Claims Tribunal as his wife died in an accident. An amount of Rs. 90,000/- was awarded by way of compensation. The applicant moved the Tribunal with a request that the amount of compensation awarded may be paid to him as he wants to repair his residential house and further he requires money for treatment and repayment of the loan. The Tribunal allowed a sum of Rs. 10,000/-. Not being satisfied, the applicant/claimant has now come before this Court. This Court taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that even the interim compensation was not paid to him, is of the view that the applicant/claimant must be allowed to withdraw a further sum of Rs. 30,000/-. Accordingly an order to that effect. This amount shall be over and above the amount of Rs. 10,000/-, which the Tribunal has permitted to withdraw. The revision petition stands disposed of. Parties are entitled for certified copy of this order. Sd/- Chief Justice
